

Education is why America is what it is today. Mississippi has come a very long way, so why make our children suffer more.

We need more money and not more cuts in educational funding. If you and the legislature would visit these schools, you would see it laid out before your eyes. Mississippi is going backward instead of forward. May God help you to make the right decisions.

Robin Whitfield, MCE Instructor, Mendenhall High School